Press Release: Release of an Indo-Bhutan Cultural Cooperation song “Tho Dha Shem” -a taste of Bhutan & India at India House Estate, Thimphu

The Embassy of India, Thimphu released an Indo-Bhutan cultural cooperation duet song titled “Tho Dha Shem”-a taste of Bhutan & India. Her Excellency Ruchira Kamboj, Ambassador of India to Bhutan ceremoniously handed over the DVD to Kheng Sonam Dorji, a recipient of the ICCR’s Distinguished Alumni Award, on 1 July 2022 at India House Estate.

The melodious song was composed by Mr. Lhab Tshering from Bhutan and was beautifully sung by Ms. Suchetha Satish and Mr. Hemlal Darjee.

Ms. Suchetha Satish, a multilingual singer from India, has established the Guinness World Record for singing in 120 languages, at an event held in the Indian Consulate at Dubai last year. She made the record by singing 120 different songs in 120 languages in seven hours and 20 minutes, which includes a Dzongkha song “Zung Na”.

Mr. Hemlal Darjee is a popular singer from Bhutan, who has sung numerous popular songs namely; Nge Mewang Ku Wog Gay Dho, Sikkim Man Parch & Pangersho Pang Ge.

The event was organized as part of the ongoing India@75 Amrit Mahotsav celebrations in Bhutan.
