

INDIA-BHUTAN FOUNDATION

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

The India-Bhutan Foundation invites proposals from Bhutanese or Indian nationals / organizations seeking financial assistance for projects that enhance exchange and interaction among the peoples of India and Bhutan through activities in the educational, cultural, scientific, and technical fields.

The proposal may pertain to studies; research; educational activities; in-service training for citizens of Bhutan and India at institutions of learning located in each other's countries; exchange visits of scholars, poets, writers, journalists, artists, and other professionals in the fields of education, agriculture, environment, public health, sports, science and technology, etc.; seminars; symposia; workshops; and support to non-governmental organizations in the two countries whose work contributes to achieving objectives of the Foundation.

Further details, including the application form, are available at the website:

<https://indiabhutanfoundation.com>

Please submit your detailed proposal by email to:

For applicants based in Bhutan:

The Secretary
India-Bhutan Foundation, Thimphu
Secretariat

Embassy of India, Thimphu

 ibf.thimphu@mea.gov.in

For applicants based in India:

The Secretary
India-Bhutan Foundation,
New Delhi Secretariat
Royal Bhutanese Embassy, New Delhi

 schuki@mfa.gov.bt

DEADLINE

Monday, 24 July 2023